Jim Clary, marine artist, donates works to help fellow veterans

Troy, MI – Jim Clary, marine artist and veteran, is combining his passion for maritime art and his dedication to helping fellow veterans in his community. Clary will be donating a limited number of collector prints on a first-come basis to people making a contribution to Community Housing Network’s veteran housing services.

CHN’s veteran housing services provides help to veterans who are homeless, or at risk of becoming homeless, by removing barriers to housing through the help of security deposits and utility deposits.

As the nation remembers the 100th anniversary of the sinking of the Titanic, Jim’s stunningly detailed pieces “Nearer To Thee” (8”x8” print) http://www.jclary.com/nearertothee.html will be offered for donations of $25 or more. “In Memory of the 100th Anniversary R.M.S. Titanic, April 15, 1912 (20”x17” print) http://www.jclary.com/inmemory.html will offered for donations of $100 or more.

Contributions may be made online by clicking the donate button at communityhousingnetwork.org and then clicking on the dropdown button for Veteran Housing Services. Or, checks may be sent to: Community Housing Network, 570 Kirts Blvd., Suite 231, Troy, MI 48084. Please be sure to include Veteran Housing Services on the note line.

Community Housing Network is a nonprofit organization committed to providing affordable housing and housing resources to people who are homeless, people with disabilities, and other vulnerable residents of Southeastern Michigan. The organization carries out its work in Oakland, Macomb and Wayne counties. For more information, visit communityhousingnetwork.org.

###