FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
November 19, 2012

Jim Clary, marine artist, offers a way to help thank fellow veterans
Art donation comes in month of Thanksgiving, Veterans Day

Troy, MI –Jim Clary, marine artist and veteran, is combining his passion for maritime art and his dedication to helping fellow veterans in his community beginning in this season of Thanksgiving and Veterans Day. Clary is donating a limited number of signed collector prints on a first-come basis to people making a contribution to Community Housing Network’s veteran housing services.

CHN’s veteran housing services help veterans who are homeless, or at risk of becoming homeless, by removing barriers to housing with the assistance of security deposits and utility deposits.

As the nation also remembers the 100th anniversary of the sinking of the Titanic, Jim’s stunningly detailed piece “Nearer To Thee” (8”x8” print) http://www.jclary.com/neareretothee.html will be offered for donations of $25 or more. “In Memory of the 100th Anniversary R.M.S. Titanic, April 15, 1912” (20”x17” print) http://www.jclary.com/inmemory.html will be offered for donations of $100 or more.

Contributions may be made online by clicking the donate button at communityhousingnetwork.org and then clicking on the dropdown button for Veteran Housing Services. Or, checks may be sent to: Community Housing Network, 570 Kirts Blvd., Suite 231, Troy, MI 48084. Please be sure to include Veteran Housing Services on the note line.

Media members: Jim Clary is available for interviews. Please call Marylynn G. Hewitt, 248-269-1336, if you would like us to make arrangements.

Community Housing Network is a nonprofit organization committed to providing affordable housing and housing resources to people who are homeless, people with disabilities, and other vulnerable residents of Southeastern Michigan. The organization carries out its work in Oakland, Macomb and Wayne counties. For more information, visit communityhousingnetwork.org.

###