Community Housing Network to host Bring it Home to benefit the Housing Resource Center

Troy, MI – Metro Detroit nonprofit Community Housing Network (CHN) will hold its 13th annual fundraiser, Bring it Home, 6:9:30 p.m. Thursday, October 10, at the Royal Park Hotel in Rochester. Evening festivities will include a sit-down dinner, silent and live auctions, networking, an open bar and more. This year’s event focuses on Community Housing Network’s Housing Resource Center (HRC).

“The HRC is the core of the organization, a one-stop shop connecting members of the community with all applicable programs and services that may benefit them, even beyond housing,” said Marc Craig, CHN president. “The HRC serves as our hub, branching out into spokes to resources in our community as well as CHN’s internal programs. Through the years, CHN has been able to help thousands of people reach their goal of long-term, sustainable housing and independence.”

Bring it Home will also include the presentation of the third annual Emmett Jones Memorial Award to a program participant whose life was changed through one of CHN’s programs.

This year’s Leadership Sponsor is West Construction, Pontiac. MARS is the Creative Sponsor and Detroit Home is the Media Sponsor.

Tickets are $100, and sponsorship ranging from $250 are still available. Contact Hailey Noonan to purchase tickets or sponsorships at HNoonan@chninc.net or 248-824-7313. Additional information about the event and sponsorships is available on CHN’s website at www.communityhousingnetwork.org.

Community Housing Network is a nonprofit organization committed to providing homes for people in need through proven strategies of homelessness prevention, housing assistance and development, community education and referral, advocacy and additional services. The organization carries out its work in Oakland, Macomb and Wayne counties. In 2012 it was recognized by Crain’s Detroit Business as a Cool Place to Work and by the Detroit Free Press Top 100 Workplace.

###