Community Housing Network to host Bring it Home 2014

Troy, MI – Metro Detroit nonprofit Community Housing Network (CHN) will hold its 14th annual fundraiser, Bring it Home, 6-9:30 p.m. Thursday, October 16, at the Royal Park Hotel in Rochester. Evening festivities will include: networking, an open bar, a sit-down dinner, the opportunity to bid on silent and live auction items, and more. This year’s theme is “Welcome to my Home”.

“Bring it Home is an incredibly heartwarming event,” said Hailey Noonan, CHN Resource Development coordinator. “It helps make it possible for Community Housing Network to provide vital housing resources for people with disabilities, those who are homeless, and other vulnerable citizens of Southeastern Michigan.”

Bring it Home will also include the presentation of the fourth annual Emmett Jones Memorial Award to a program participant whose life was changed through one of CHN’s programs.

This year will include the first presentation of the James C. Merritt Volunteer Service Award in order to honor an individual who has shown an extraordinary commitment to the mission of CHN.

This year’s Leadership Sponsor is West Construction Services. Detroit Home is the Media Sponsor.

Tickets are $100, and sponsorship opportunities are available at a number of levels. Contact Hailey Noonan to purchase tickets or sponsorships at HNoonan@chninc.net or 248-824-7313. Additional information about the event and sponsorships is available on CHN’s website at www.communityhousingnetwork.org.

Last year’s event raised a total of $120,119.57, including $19,400 to benefit Adopt A Family 2013.

Community Housing Network is a nonprofit organization committed to providing homes for people in need through proven strategies of homelessness prevention, housing assistance and development, community education and referral, advocacy and additional services. The organization carries out its work in Oakland, Macomb and Wayne counties. In 2012 and 2013 it was recognized by the Detroit Free Press as a Top 100 Workplace and in 2012 honored as a Crain’s Cool Place to Work.
